Craig Deerman founded Deerman Sales in 2018, with the mission to provide best-in-class service to plumbers, builders and distributors while delivering on the sales and marketing goals of its manufacturers. Prior to founding Deerman Sales, he spent 18+ years in the residential, commercial, and decorative plumbing industry. He brings a wealth of knowledge to his customers and understands the challenges from the distributors, the trade, and the manufacturers point of view.

Deerman Sales has recently expanded the team to better service our customers and manufacturers. We have welcomed: Jack Bradford and Ashlynn Thurber into Outside Sales, and Paul Bentivegna into Inside Sales and Customer Service.
